

LONDONGATE MANAGEMENT & INVESTMENT PLC

HISTORY

Prior to 1995

- Anglo Tashkent was established in Uzbekistan. Reinsured the largest Cotton Contract in Central Asia.
- Anglo Romana Insurance Company was established in Bucharest.
- Balkan plc (Pension Fund) was established in Sofia, Bulgaria.

Prior to 2000

- Kay International reinsured Gazprom's contract frustration through Anglo Russia Insurance Company at Lloyd's. The premium income was in excess of USD20m.
- Londongate established London Bishkek Insurance Company in The Kyrgyz Republic.
- Londongate Azerbaijan Insurance Company was established in Baku.
- London Almaty Insurance Company was established in Kazakhstan.
- London Yerevan Insurance Company was established in Armenia.

Prior to 2005

- Londongate Gambia Insurance Company was established in Banjul.
- Londongate took a minority stake in Atlantic Londongate Insurance Company in Mauritius.
- Londongate Group of Insurance Companies were ranked 2nd in their territories.
- Kay International established a representative office in the Iran.
- London Dushanbe Insurance Company was established in Tajikistan.

Prior to 2010

- Londongate's shares in Anglo Romana was taken over by the local stakeholders.
- Londongate agreed to sell its stake in London Yerevan Insurance Company, Armenia to the 2nd largest insurance company in Russia.
- Londongate agreed to sell its stake in London Almaty Insurance Company to a prominent Banking institution in Kazakhstan.
- Kay International plc set up a representative office in Bucharest, Romania.
- Londongate Gambia Insurance Company in Banjul has posted premium income growth in excess of 40% over the previous years.
- Kay International plc set up a representative office in Hong Kong
- Kay representative office in Iran became dormant as a result of EU sanctions.

Prior to 2015

- Kyrgyz Investment and Credit Bank (KICB) affiliated with European Bank (EBRD) and IFC, acquired Londongate shares in London Bishkek Insurance Company.
- Kay International placed a binding authority with GIC Re to underwrite UK and EU property risks.
- Kay International became a Lloyd's broker

Prior to 2018

- Londongate is in the process of setting up an insurance Company in the EU.
- Londongate signed a collaboration agreement with a Leader Team Broker de Asigurare, in Romania.
- Londongate sold its minority stake in R.E.G UK (an online compliance Company) to Disruptive capital.
- Kay International plc, an associate company of Londongate signed a joint collaboration agreement with Istanbul Underwriting Centre (IUC) in Turkey.
- Londongate took a minority stake in Kay International AMEA, a franchise of Kay International Plc.